Speakers: Host, Linda Thomas, Female Speaker 1-2, Matt

HOST: Every Friday, Rockefeller High School English teacher Linda Thomas meets her friends for happy hour. The group usually gathers across town at O'Malley's Pub but today they decided to hit her friend Matt's favorite restaurant to celebrate his birthday.

LINDA THOMAS: So a group of us go to happy hour every week. It's become a ritual. We spend some time together and blow off steam. This time we went somewhere new which was convenient for me because it was only two blocks away from where I work.

HOST: As the evening wound down, Linda ordered a final round of shots for everyone.

FEMALE SPEAKER 1: Oh no. No.

LINDA THOMAS: Birthday boy Matt.

FEMALE SPEAKER 2: Happy birthday, Matt. I'm doing this just for you.

LINDA THOMAS: Three, two, one. Another round?

LINDA THOMAS: They were students from my English class. I knew most of them were on the debate team so they probably had just gotten off of practice and decided to get something to eat. They had to have been just as surprised and uncomfortable as I was.

MATT: Hey, Linda, are you okay?
