

RUBRIC – CHAPTER QUESTIONS

	Exemplary (A)	Quality (B)	Adequate (C)	Needs Improvement (D)
Content	Answers are comprehensive, accurate and complete. Key ideas are clearly stated, explained, and well supported.	Answers are accurate and complete. Key points are stated and supported.	Answers are not comprehensive or completely stated. Key points are addressed, but not well supported.	Answers are partial or incomplete. Key points are not clear. Question not adequately answered.
Comprehension	Responses indicated the text was read and understood. Thoughtful reaction was included in question responses. Use of text content and vocabulary providing additional insight and evaluation of material covered.	Responses indicated the text was read, and some responses included thoughtful responses. Use of text content and vocabulary demonstrates deep understanding of material.	Responses indicated the text was read. Use text vocabulary and content.	Responses did not give evidence that the text was read nor understood. Used direct quotes and examples from the text.
Organization	Well organized, coherently developed, and easy to follow.	Organization is mostly clear and easy to follow.	Inadequate organization or development. Structure of the answer is not easy to follow.	Organization and structure detract from the answer.
Grammar	Displays no errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence structure.	Displays one to three errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence structure.	Displays three to five errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence structure.	Displays over five errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence structure.
Sources	Effective use of citations. It is clear that each general statement is a result of a previous study or a general conclusion.	Studies are generally described in enough details so that their relation to other studies and to the relevant theoretical issues can be understood.	Some of the literature seems to be inappropriate or not well-lined to the topic. Literature may not be reviewed. Missing citations	Too few citations are included for the reader to be confident that the literature has been adequately reviewed.
APA STYLE	The title page, in-text citations, paper format, and reference page are in APA style with no mistakes. All headers, tables and figures, margins, captions, etc. are in APA style.	Information is included in the appropriately sections. The style is generally correct and includes correct spelling, fonts, and margins. Page breaks are appropriate and sections are in order. May have minor mistakes in referencing.	For the most part, the information is included in the appropriate titles sections. Consistent APA style(s) errors, spacing, or statistical copy.	More consistent style errors, or many inconsistent style errors. Information is consistently included in the wrong sections (materials, described procedures, discussion, etc.)