

Population Health - Communication

Description: The baccalaureate graduate nurse will apply leadership concepts, skills, and decision making in providing care in a variety of settings.

Component: Essential II

Area	Gold Mastery	Silver Acceptable	Bronze Developing	Unacceptable
Observations Billboards- Advertisements City and/or neighborhood newspapers, community bulletin boards. Is there evidence of a predominant party affiliation? Forms of formal and/or informal communication. Displays or posters that tell about life in the community TV/Radio Stations/or other sources of mass communication?	All of the listed observations are clearly addressed and discussed in a comprehensive and detailed manner with 2 or more specific examples. Additional issues, not listed are addressed.	Three or more of the listed observations are not present or discussed in depth	Two or less of the listed observations are not present or discussed in depth	Does not address section
Develop an age appropriate (150 words or less) newspaper script, poster, or billboard for adults and teens related to the Case Scenario	Develop an age appropriate (150 words or less) newspaper script, poster, or billboard for adults and teens related to the Case Scenario	Develop an age appropriate (150 words or less) newspaper script, poster, or billboard for adults and teens related to the Case Scenario that does not demographics and health literacy	Develop an age appropriate (150 words or less) newspaper script, poster, or billboard for adults and teens related to the Case Scenario that is not age appropriate	Does not address section