Population Health - Basic Windshield Survey

Description: The baccalaureate graduate nurse will synthesize theories and concepts to build an understanding of the human experience.

Component: Essential I

Area	Gold Mastery	Silver Acceptable	Bronze Developing	Unacceptable
Observations Describe the characteristics of the people you see in Sentinel City®: race/ethnicity distribution, age ranges, gender mix. Signs of poverty/wealth? Who do you see on the streets- parent with a child, teens, couples, disabled persons? Anyone in the city you would not expect to see? Homeless persons, beggars, etc.? Dogs on or off leash, other animals? Churches or denominations?	All of the listed observations are clearly addressed and discussed in a comprehensive and detailed manner with two or more specific examples. Additional issues, not listed, are addressed.	One or two of the listed observations are not present or discussed in depth, specific examples missing.	Three or four of the listed observations are not present or discussed in depth, specific examples missing.	Five or more of the listed observations are not present or discussed in depth.
Target Population Select a target sub-population of interest within Sentinel City. Discuss relevant demographic data and health status indicators for your chosen population group.	All relevant data to target population is provided	Some relevant data is provided	Missing demographic data relevant to target population	Does not include data relevant to selected target population
Identify major health concerns for target population. Include discussion of major health concerns in	A minimum of three major health concerns for target population are	Two major health concerns for target population are addressed	One major health concerns for target population are addressed and rationale provided	Major health concerns are superficially addressed or is missing

relation to a global health issue	addressed and rationale provided	and rationale provided
Create four SMART goals based upon CDC and Healthy People 2020 information in relation to major health concerns for your selected target population.	Four SMART goals created based upon CDC and Healthy People 2020 information in relation to major health concerns for your selected target population.	Three SMART goals created based upon CDC and Healthy People 2020 information in relation to major health concerns for your selected target population.	One to two SMART goals created based upon CDC and Healthy People 2020 information in relation to major health concerns for your selected target population.	SMART goals not created based upon CDC and Healthy People 2020 information in relation to major health concerns for your